[Fast-paced compilation shots of student residence, including a bedroom, kitchen, table tennis, pool and views from the balcony.]

[Student resident, Henry, standing outside the SPS Swinburne Student Residence entrance.]

Hi I'm Henry, do you want to see what it's actually like to live on campus? Come with me!

[Henry walking out of the lift in SPS level 7].

I'm currently sharing a four-bedroom apartment in the SPS building. You've also got other options, such as college style dormitory rooms, shared townhouses, and studio apartments.

[Henry standing outside his apartment front door.]

This is me, come on in!

[Shots of the dining, kitchen, living, and bedroom spaces in Henry's shared apartment.]

Your apartment comes furnished with all of the essentials for living. From your dining furniture, living furniture, and bedroom furniture. But don't let that limit you. You can add all sorts of things to your apartment to make it your own.

[Shot of Henry's room and the view out of the window over Hawthorn and Kew.]

My personal favourite thing though, is the beautiful views I get from my room.

[Henry standing in his bedroom.]

And if you want to hang out with others on res,

[Henry snapping his fingers.]

[As if teleporting, in an editing effect, at the snap of his fingers Henry is standing in the SPS common room.]

[Shots of other students playing pool and table tennis.]

you've also got the common room where you can play pool, table tennis and enjoy yourself out on the balcony.

[Shots of the SPS building exterior, John Street, Glenferrie Road and a train leaving Glenferrie Station.]

Another thing that I love is how convenient the location is. You can just walk to classes. You can step right out onto Glenferrie Road, and it's only a 15-minute train to get to the city.

[Henry standing outside on his apartment's balcony.]

Honestly, I'd tell every Swinburne student to apply. For more information, or if you're interested, check out the Swinburne website.
