[Student Megumi working on her laptop outside of the Latelab.]

[Question marks appear above Megumi's head.]

You've read the assessment four times and it still doesn't make sense. I've been there.

Then I met with a LAS Advisor and everything clicked!

[Megumi talking with LAS Advisor Matt in the Success Hub.]

My LAS Advisor helped me break down assignments, perfect my referencing, and structure my essays with confidence. They can even help with math!

[Megumi standing outside the Latelab.]

Whether you are a higher or vocational ed. student, LAS Advisors can help — and getting in touch is simple.

[Megumi looking at the Learning Academic Skills (LAS) Swinburne webpage on her phone. She clicks to book an appointment with an Advisor.]

[Megumi walks into the Success Hub on John Street.]

Book an online or in-person appointment through the Swinburne website, or just drop in when you're on campus.

[Megumi on her laptop, sitting in the outdoor space on level three of the Latelab.]
